

ABOUT

In its second year, the Association of Community Cancer Centers and Cancer Center Business Summit joined forces to present a national thought leadership forum where the intersection of BUSINESS, QUALITY, TECHNOLOGY, and POLICY leads to solutions for a tumultuous healthcare industry.

CO-HOSTS

The Association of Community Cancer Centers (ACCC) is the leading advocacy and education organization for the multidisciplinary cancer care team. ACCC is a powerful network of more than 25,000 practitioners and 2,100 cancer programs and practices nationwide.

Founded in 1974, ACCC brings together healthcare professionals across all disciplines in oncology to promote quality cancer care. It is estimated that 65 percent of the nation's cancer patients are treated by a member of ACCC.

Members rely on ACCC for education and advocacy support in adapting and responding to complex changes and challenges in the delivery of quality cancer care. ACCC provides resources on operations and management for programs and practices, reimbursement issues, policy and regulatory changes at the state and national levels, trends in cancer care, integrating new technologies and therapies, & more.

The Cancer Center Business Development Group provides business and financial advisory expertise to stakeholders in the delivery of cancer care. Practice partnering strategies. Planning, development and operational transformation of comprehensive service lines/cancer centers. Design and implementation of innovative cancer care delivery models, such as the oncology medical home and oncology specialist networks. Initiatives in value-based alternative payment models in oncology, including the Oncology Care Model (OCM) and commercial bundled pricing methodologies. ccbdgroup.com
