2018

ACCC ONCOLOGY REIMBURSEMENT MEETINGS

Navigate the annual changes in oncology reimbursement and regulations, gain tools to strengthen your program's operations, and accelerate your knowledge on the measures you can take now—and down the road—to succeed in this rapidly changing healthcare landscape.

- Review the latest trends in oncology coding and billing based on the 2018 Medicare Final Rules
- Assess financial strategies to track and improve the financial health of your cancer program
- Gain insight into upcoming coding and reimbursement challenges related to financial counseling, compliance, and authorizations in medical and radiation oncology
- Identify opportunities to improve the financial navigation services at your cancer program
- Investigate the impact of federal health policies on your cancer program

"Very informative content, engaging speakers. All oncology practices would benefit from educating their billers and coders on the annual reimbursement updates at these regional meetings."

JODI WRAY, Certified Professional Coder/Billing Specialist
Virginia Cancer Institute, Inc.

The Association of Community Cancer Centers (ACCC) is the leading education and advocacy organization for the multidisciplinary cancer team. ACCC is a powerful network of more than 23,000 multidisciplinary practitioners and 2,000 cancer programs and practices nationwide. ACCC represents cancer care professionals from every discipline in oncology—working in every care delivery setting. From private practices to hospital-based cancer programs, large healthcare systems, and major academic centers, ACCC members address the most critical issues in quality cancer care delivery. Learn more at acc-cancer.org.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND Billers and Coders; Cancer Program and Practice Administrators, Managers, and Directors; Financial Advocates; Patient Navigators; Social Workers; and all cancer care team members involved in oncology business and reimbursement.

COST Don't miss this FREE meeting, one valuable benefit of ACCC membership. Oncology state society members may also attend for FREE—a select member benefit from ACCC.

Non-ACCC members are invited to attend for the low registration rate of $149*.

* If you join ACCC as an Individual Member ($149 annual dues), you can attend these meetings—and others—for FREE! ACCC members receive practical, problem-solving resources and professional development opportunities, abundant online and in-person networking, and access to expert analysis and support of critical legislative initiatives.

Introduction and Welcome

9:15 – 10:15 AM

Oncology Coding Updates

Cindy C. Parman, CPC, CPC-H, RCC, Coding Strategies, Inc.

The 2018 Medicare Final Rules bring significant changes, including patient relationship modifiers, 340B reimbursement changes, a site of service reimbursement reduction, expanded packaging in the hospital outpatient department, new procedure codes, and preparation for Appropriate Use Criteria using Clinical Decision Support Mechanisms. This fast-paced session will provide tools to navigate the regulations that impact oncology coding and billing.

10:15 – 10:45 AM

Networking Break in the Resource Center

10:45 – 11:45 AM

Important Data Points for Your Cancer Program's Financial Health

Ricky Newton, CPA, Cancer Specialists of Tidewater

Managing data to track the performance of your program and implement sound financial strategies is mandatory in today's economic environment. Gain practical management how-to's for increasing efficiencies of revenue cycle management, accounts receivable auditing policies, and payer contracting.

11:45 AM – 12:45 PM

Federal Health Policy—How It May Impact Your Program

Matt Sturm, MBA, ECG Management Consultants, Inc.

Oncology professionals are working in an increasingly complex economic landscape. From MACRA's Mandatory Quality Payment Program to alternative payment models, the site-neutral payment policy and changes under the 340B Drug Pricing Program, we'll take a practical look at how these policies may impact your bottom line, and how you can make better-informed decisions when it comes to short- and long-term strategic planning.

"The topics were exactly aligned with some of the biggest reimbursement initiatives that our cancer program is working on."

DAVID TATMAN, Director
Mercy Medical Center North Iowa, Mercy Cancer Center

12:45 – 1:45 PM

Lunch in the Resource Center

1:45 – 2:45 PM

Prepare for Reimbursement Challenges of the Next 12 Months

Ron DiGiaino, MBA, FACHE, Revenue Cycle Inc.

The next year will be pivotal for oncology coding and reimbursement. As we prepare to convert to new coding for Radiation Oncology MPFS in 2019, correct documentation will be crucial for determining and supporting medical necessity. Hear an in-depth review of coding and reimbursement trends, including financial counseling, compliance, and authorizations in medical and radiation oncology. Gain tactical knowledge to support your department and help overcome reimbursement obstacles.

2:45 – 3:45 PM

Developing Your Financial Navigation Services

Dan Sherman, MA, LPC, The NaVectis Group

Bolster your cancer program's financial advocacy services, find strategies to lower patients' out-of-pocket burden, and tap into external assistance programs to reduce financial toxicity. Identify opportunities for continuous improvement, learn to measure the impact on your bottom line, and how to use those savings as a justification to strengthen and grow your financial advocacy program.

3:45 PM

Meeting Concludes

Agenda and session times subject to change.
