Multidisciplinary Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia Care

For patients with chronic lymphocytic leukemia, multiple factors affect treatment options, including age, overall health, whether the disease is high risk for progression, and what symptom is being treated and why. Read more on the treatment landscape and multidisciplinary approaches to care at acc-cancer.org/CLL-care.

A Reminder from the ACCC Bylaws Committee

December 1, 2019, is the deadline for submission of any proposed amendments to the ACCC Bylaws. Proposed recommendations should be sent to Betsy Spruill at bspruill@acc-cancer.org. ACCC's Bylaws are available online at: acc-cancer.org/about/pdf/Bylaws-2016.pdf.
