Fall Reimbursement Meetings Planned

KEEPING UP TO DATE ON REIMBURSEMENT

Six Regional Reimbursement Meetings will be held this fall, beginning with the October 12, 1995, meeting in Minneapolis, Minn. Cosponsored by ACCC and state clinical oncology societies, these meetings are designed to create a forum in which reimbursement policies affecting the care of cancer patients can be discussed with the major insurers. Attendees at these oncology symposia learn how guidelines, managed care, integration, and other system-wide changes are altering the practice of oncology.

Upcoming 1995 meetings include:

- October 12: Minneapolis, Minn.
- October 17: Braintree, Mass.
- November 7: Orlando, Fla.
- November 9: Pittsburgh, Pa.
- November 28: Seattle, Wash.
- December 9: Rosemont, Ill.

Remember, these meetings are free! If you live in one of these states, look for a reimbursement meeting brochure to arrive this fall.
