

COVID-19 Safety-Related Operational Changes Made by Cancer Programs

Limiting office visits

Transitioning more patients to video visits

Making treatment alterations, such as converting from infused to oral therapy and “scrubbing the schedule,” to minimize patient visits to infusion centers

Changing therapy schedules when possible—weekly to every two weeks or every three weeks to every six weeks

Redeploying staff and adjusting personnel, like redeploying teaching staff and hospitalists

Limiting personnel in operating rooms

