

Virginia Vaitones, MSW, OSW-C is currently Past President of the Association of Community Cancer Centers. She works at PenBay Medical Center in Rockport, Maine as an oncology social worker. She did her graduate work at Simmons College School of Social Work and has worked in field of oncology for 39 years. Virginia is past President of the Association of Oncology Social Work and represented this association at the Commission on Cancer for 11 years. Virginia was involved in the writing and updating the Cancer Program Standards 2012: Ensuring Patient Centered Care. Her areas of interest and expertise are Patient Navigation, Financial Advocacy and Psychosocial Distress Screening.

She has been a reviewer for the Livestrong Foundation and the National Cancer Institute patient education booklet series. She has authored two booklets: What to expect from a Cancer Diagnosis in the Family-A Teen's Guide and Hospice in Long Term care Facilities. She has co-authored articles for Journal of Psychosocial Oncology and Handbook of Oncology Social Work (pending publication).